

Standard of Conduct, Bulletin Board Notice

From time to time and without prior announcement, inspections by Drug Detection Dogs may be made of anyone entering or leaving the property, including company employees, employees of contractors or their subcontractors or agents doing business with this company, and others such as visitors and guests.

Entry onto company property is deemed consent to an inspection of person, vehicle, and personal effects. If you do not consent to inspection, please do not enter or remain on the property.

The use, possession, sale, transfer or purchase of illegal drugs is not allowed in any office or work location of this company. When appropriate, items violating this policy, found in the course of an inspection, will be taken into custody and may be turned over to appropriate law enforcement agencies.
